MARCH-MAY 2019 TEEN PROGRAMS

Volunteer Opportunity

*Please note that there will not always be volunteer work. Volunteers must be scheduled up to a week in advanced for hours.***

1. WCPL is looking for volunteers to write book reviews, community updates, book lists, etc for our blog! Teens must be 14-18 and be able to commit to reading 3 books and writing 3 book reviews/bookslists OR writing 3 community updates with a minimum of 500 words per article.

2. Crafts to go- We are looking for a volunteer to prep our monthly crafts to go. Volunteers must be committed to prepping 3 crafts.

3. Adopt-a-Shelf- Imagine this, you're looking for a book but can't find it on the shelf... That's why we shelf read! WCPL needs volunteers to check the shelves and make sure the books are in order. Volunteers are required to go through training.

4. Miscellaneous tasks- This could include straightening board books, shelf read J DVD, sorting/organizing craft material, etc.

- All volunteers must be at least 13 years old. Volunteers younger than 16 years old will not be asked to volunteer after 7:00 PM.
- Volunteers must adhere to all of West Caldwell Public Library's policies and procedures.
- Volunteers must sign up for a regular schedule and call if unable to come in. They must arrive on time and check in with staff upon arrival.
- Volunteers must follow directions given by staff and be courteous to staff and patrons at all times.
- Volunteers must dress appropriately. Extremely short skirts/dresses, bare midriff tops, unclean or excessively torn clothing, and clothing with inappropriate logos or statements is prohibited.
